Mount Dora's Freedom on the Waterfront Independence Day Celebration

MOUNT DORA, Fla. (July 2, 2018) – The City of Mount Dora and 103.1 The Wolf are proud to present the All-American celebration “Freedom on the Waterfront”, Tuesday, July 3, 2018.

The festivities start at 5 p.m. at Elizabeth Evans Park and end with a spectacular fireworks show over Lake Dora. This year we are proud to announce the 13th Army Band, with opening act Spayed Koolie, will be playing live music on the stage and there will be a KidsZone with lots of fun activities, food trucks, beverages and plenty of fun for everyone!

Central Florida's most creative Fireworks will start at 9:20 p.m. over the water at Evans Park.

Public parking will be available with shuttle service to and from the reserved lots. Parking is free. Handicap parking will be located in the lower level Parking Garage. Train Service is sponsored by Visit Mount Dora and will be available at the Mount Dora Plaza Shopping Center at 2700 West Old U.S. Highway 441. Van Shuttles sponsored by Mullinax Ford will be available at the First Baptist Church Mount Dora at 1000 East 1st Avenue.

Media parking will be staged along the railroad tracks on Charles Avenue and Donnelly Street and that area will be blocked off for live truck/media vehicle parking.
